A STREET CAR ROMANCE:

How the Conductor and Portly Pas senger Fell From Grace.

"I tell you my dear," remarked the dainty little woman in the union depot ear yesterday. "Decatur is certainly a quiet town, and that's why it is so good and such a charming place to live.
There are so many nice things here,
that I do say the poor things who have to live in Springfield, Bloomington, Peoria and the other little towns. Don't you?"

"Indeed I do; there's my sister, Mrs.
Smith she lives in Springfield, and the poor dear nearly dies with envy, don't you know, and if she could not run over to Decatur once in a while, she'd just go crazy. I know she would. Oh! here's my street. I must get off. Say conde nor, stop the car, will you?"

"Oh! must you go? But say, dear, do you know that Phillips & Co. have opened a store in Wingate block, where they'll have the Kimball pianos? And they'll have a grand opening June 15. I think it's just too lovely."

Conductor with brave attempt to be polite. "Did you wish to get off here?"

"Oh! don't get so important. I tell you, my dear, you must be there. The Kimball is just the dearest and sweetest thing you ever saw. I never knew how much life is worth till I got mine, and my husband says it makes him think of the happy day of our youth and court ship when I play. Why I just can't get that man out of the house after supper.
He just begs me to play, and says he wishes he had bought me the Kimball when we were first married, it."

Conductor. "Lady will you get off, if you want to? Sotto voce (d d d d)
With you normal man, you're swearing.
I told you I'll report you, see if I don't. Well my dear, I must go. Come up some evening and hear my Kimball and bring John along. He'll know he'll not get off like mine."

Here the conductor, who had been manifesting a disposition to tear his hair, inadvertently brought down his clenched hand on the lever; the car gave a sudden lurch forward. The lady sat down heavily on the pavement, while the various packages with which she was laden rolled in every direction. The passenger crowded to the door, and the conductor was so bewildered that he couldn't stop the car for nearly a block;
then they heard, "as I was saying dear,
you must be sure and take John to the Wingate block and let him see the ele gant Kimball pianos, and when he does,
if he don't buy you one, he's not the good, kind husband I take him for."

The benevolent portly passenger reached the fallen lady, raised her to her feet ascertained that no bones were broken, and then realizing that the Wa ter train was due to leave in two minutes made a wild break for the car; but as the mud in his shoes struck fire from the pavement, he said: "Say, dear;
don't forget that the grand opening of the Kimball Music House, in Wingate block, will be about June 15th, and they'll have about three car loads of fine pianos to select from; make John take you." The car sped on, and the portly passenger and conductor recited selec tions from profane history.

KILLED AT HIS POST.

One of the Oldest Engineers on the Vandalia Line

MURDERED BY STRIKING COAL MINERS

For Obeying the Orders of His Superior in Moving a Coal Train—The Act Alienates the Friendship of the Railroad Men.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 7.—William Bart, of this city, one of the oldest and best-known of Vandalia engineers, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock between Knightsville and Harmony by striking coal miners.

Bart, with Wm. Austermiller, fireman, was bringing west a special train of sixteen cars of coal. Since the strike miners have been compelled to dodge rocks thrown at them by miners on al most every run. When the train was between Harmony and Knightsville, the engineer and fireman were made the target for a number of rocks thrown by a group of strikers along the track.
Bart had just dodged one rock and was in the act of rising when he was struck back of the ear and instantly killed.

The brakeman had been driven into the caboose, and the firemen tried in vain to stop the train by reversing the engine, but was unable to do so,
the train running for some distance this side of Brazil. The train was run back to Brazil, and Bart's dead body taken in the depot, where an inquest was held. When the news reached this city it caused the most intense excitement.
Railroad men left their offices and gathered in groups at the Union station.

Bart's body was brought to this city last evening. Bart was 40 years of age and leaves a widow and five chil dren. He has been a mason for years.
He has been a faithful and trusted em ployee of the Vandalia for about twenty years. The train was the second of three coal trains carrying large coal brought down the river from Cincinnati.

Bart was struck either with a rock or piece of iron. The miner will have great influence on the strike in Indiana.

"This ends it for the miners. The
railroaders will never join them now
by refusing to carry coal cars," said
one railroad man yesterday evening.
"The miners can look out from now on."

THE COAL FAMINE

Causing Serious Loss and Inconvenience to Commerce and Manufacture.

CLEVELAND, O., June 7.—Owing to the difficulty in getting coal, the Det roit and Cleveland Steam Navigation
Co. has laid off a passenger steamer, and until the coal strike is settled, only tri-weekly service will be possible. Di rector Farley, of the public works de partment of Cleveland, has notified cit izens that the use of water on lawns must be entirely discontinued until a supply of fuel is assured.

The Union and Cleveland rolling mills shut down yesterday morning on account of no fuel. Four thousand men were employed in these two mills and they will be in enforced idleness
until relief from the coal famine is ob tained.

A special from Gallipolis, O., says:
"Stoners will be forced to lay up this week owing to scarcity of fuel. Not a boat is using lump coal but are com pelled to burn slack coal at ten cents per bushel. At the power-house of the electric street railway, they are using coke and coal tar mixed to raise steam.

Not a lump of coal can be obtained between here and Pittsburgh, and as far down as Fronton is being guarded by men with Winchester rifles.

CLEVELAND's postmasters and internal revenue force did not help the Democrats much in the election Monday in the Fourth judicial district. He probably appointed the wrong men.

Lost—Adair E. Stevenson. He is supposed to have wandered into the swamps of the "Golden Era" and it is feared he may perish for want of food. Any one who may discover him will please return him to the home of prosperity of 1892.

It is unfortunate that the only county (Menard), that went Democratic in the judicial election Monday is in this congressional district. But the chances are that it will be the only county in the district in November that will give a majority for Springer. The others will be carried by Major Connely.

The Decatur Review says this is the year when you can't hire a Republican to stay away from the polls. It could appropriately have added that this is the year when Democratic campaigners are unable to fool the people and that there are a great many who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket who cannot be hired to go to the polls.

The search of the Democratic committee in Cook county for foreigners to naturalize is not proving much of a success. They expected to find about 35,000 but they now admit they will do well if they find 8,000. The gates of Castle Garden seem to be opening outward since the Democratic administration has destroyed the opportunities for making a living.

THE Republican victory in Oregon turns out to be as overwhelming as the recent victories on the Atlantic coast. It is the voice of the Pacific joining the voice of the Atlantic states in a united cry of disgust with the party in power. Let the good work go on until the Democratic party is driven from power for good, and it is swallowed up by the Populist party and is assimilated in the physical organism of that representative of wild theories where it belongs, and let the people of Macon county, who want to see that glad day, go to work to give at least 1,000 majority against the Democratic party next November.

The Chicago Times claims to have information in relation to the Carnegie defective armor plate matter that connects President Cleveland with the fraud. It will be remembered that the president some time ago overruled a subordinate in the estimate he made of the fine the Carnegies were subject to under the law for furnishing defective armor plate, and in overruling the judgment of the subordinate official saved the Carnegies $20,000. The Times charges that Cleveland in coming to the rescue of Carnegie simply paid a political debt he owed Carnegie and Frick, these gentlemen having contributed $50,000 to help elect Cleveland. The Times' authority is quoted as saying:

The Carnegie Steel company was a big contributor to the Cleveland campaign fund in 1892. The amount of its contribution was $50,000. This may astonish you. Indeed it is well calculated to astonish almost anybody to hear of a big highly protected Republican manufacturing corporation like the Carnegie Co. chipping in so liberally to help elect a Democratic president, and the only deduction to be drawn from it is that the $50,000 was contributed for a purpose.

Gov. Altgeld Skinned. It is apparent to every thinking man that Gov. Altgeld has not exerted himself to protect life and property in the state since the coal miners' strike has assumed a dangerous attitude. Like a demagogue, he has been quibbling over minor matters with the sheriffs in threatened districts, and insulted several of them when he knew they had exhausted their powers to preserve the peace. But he has at last found a sheriff that does not propose to stand like a cur and whine, while this product of anarchy lectures him. There was danger at Cartersville, and Sheriff Dowell saw that he had not power to quell the mob, and wired the governor for troops, giving in detail the dangers and also the fact that he had exhausted his power. In reply Altgeld accused the sheriff of not having done his duty and of trying to shift the responsibility of preserving the peace off his shoulders and closed by saying he had ordered the militia to Cartersville but suggested that the sheriff had better resign and let him be appointed who could maintain order.

In reply to this the sheriff wired the governor as follows:

I wired you the facts concerning the Cartersville strike, notwithstanding your insulting telegram. You seem to have studied the method of learning nothing of strikes in Illinois, no matter how dangerous, or how little your desire or capacity to control or assist in controlling them.

I did not ask you for information as to my powers and duties, and I do not regard you as my source of power or information. I had sworn in, already, more than I could respectfully arm, as the county has no guns. The people here understand that the state militia are clothed, armed and paid to preserve the public peace in times of extraordinary riots. The county treasury is certainly not to be impoverished and paralyzed by coping with such armed forces, when the state troopers are properly armed and paid to do it.

I find it to be the opinion of many here that the strike throughout the state would have been easily controlled and the whole state now in peace without bloodshed, if you had resigned as governor, or gotten sick and left the state in the hands of the lieutenant-governor who sympathizes with and loves Carterville.

I am frank to say that I have at heart only the good of this county and its citizens and if resignations are in order I stand ready to resign when you do. I am willing to make any sacrifice needed to benefit the citizens of Illinois. I stand ready to render any assistance in my power to the militia you may send to Carterville.

I again repeat that troops are needed and, in my opinion, order cannot be restored, nor bloodshed prevented, without them.

(Signed) T. L. DOWELL,
Sheriff of Williamson County.

This will strike every law-loving citizen as being about the proper thing. It tells great chunks of truth in every line and between the lines it illustrates the contempt in which the governor, the product of the ward heelers of Chicago, is held by the people regardless of party.

The Ohio Convention.

Some weeks ago some smart correspondent, who got into the inside of Ohio Republican politics, wrote an elaborate article from some point in Ohio to a metropolitan paper in which he told all about the secrets of the Ohio Republicans. He told how Congressman Grosvenor, who as a candidate for governor, and Charley Foster were at the head of a conspiracy in that state to down McKinley and protect at the coming state convention, and make the money question the leading issue in the next national campaign.

That convention has been held, and none of the wonderful and strange things happened that were predicted by the correspondent who had inside information. The first thing that happened in the convention was an effort to get Governor McKinley to preside over it. This he could not do on account of the business of his office and Hon. Charles Foster was selected as chairman. The platform speaks of Gov. McKinley "as the man whom we delight to honor," and declares the McKinley tariff act of 1890 "the ablest expression of the patriotic principle of protection yet enacted," and condemns the attempt to repeal or amend it, and the speeches made showed that McKinley is Ohio's favorite for president, and that Foraker is the choice of the people for United States Senator. One week before the convention, Congressman Grosvenor was re-nominated for congressman in his district.

Every prediction made by this man with the inside pull, proved to be untrue, and so it will continue to be with all these underhanded methods to undermine William McKinley as a presidential possibility.

SCIENCE AT HOME.

Two Simple Experiments for the Family Circle.

A Hydraulic Horse Race Which Allows No End of Fun—The Imitation Algae—How to Conduct the Amusing Operation.

Carve out of a raw potato a cylinder of the diameter of the upper portion of a lamp chimney of good size and about an inch tall. Then with a quill tooth-pick piece in this cylinder four cylindrical holes oblique with relation to the axis of the large cylinder. Our picture shows you the place and the direction of the holes. Then take the chimney and close the largest end with the potato thus prepared.

At the top of the lamp chimney fit on another potato cylinder or a cork pierced with cylindrical holes like those below, but this time each hole must have each axis vertical and not oblique. Then through a vertical hole in the center pass a string to suspend the apparatus. Catch this string below the cork by passing a match through it. Attach the upper end of the string to a nail in the ceiling or to the chandelier which hangs above your center table. Meantime put a lamp shade over the wide chimney and force it down to the largest part; then suspend all around the shade little horses and riders cut out of paper.

Place a bowl on the table, directly under the lamp chimney, and pour water into it through the chimney's upper end. This will set the apparatus in motion at once. The water passes through the holes in the cork at the upper end, fills the tube and runs out at the oblique orifices in the potato. The whole thing then begins to turn with great rapidity, and you have a hydraulic racing match before you. The little horses and riders will move around merrily.

When you pull apart two panes of glass which were stuck together by syrup or copying ink you will notice that the viscous liquid is spread out over each pane, so as to form very delicate and artistic arabesques, like the impressions of fossil algae. You will be surprised at the number of beautiful and graceful designs which you can obtain by this pressure of two panes together over any sticky substance. Our picture gives the fac simile of a design obtained with printer's ink. An impression can readily be taken from these designs on the glass, which may be saved at will by moving the panes in various directions.—N. Y. Journal.

THE POPULIST TICKET.

Senatorial and County Candidates Nominated in Convention.

The Populist delegates from the counties of Macon, Moultrie and Christian, comprising the 1st Senatorial district, met in convention at the city council room at the court house and organized by electing Dan Goode, of Macon county, as chairman, and W. E. R. Kell, of Decatur, secretary.

For state senator, Edmund Gaul, a former and former Democrat of Moultrie county, was placed in nomination by John Fulk, of Macon county.

Delegate Okey, of Christian county, gave the nomination a warm second. Mr. Gaul, who had previously declined to submit his name to the convention, arose to state that he had already contributed $1000 in cash for the cause, and had given twice that much in time. He said it would be too much of a sacrifice for him, as he had to educate his children. Mr. Kell placed Henry Funk, of Pana, in nomination. He did not want the honor, but hoped that Mr. Gaul would stay on the track in the middle of the road.

Mr. Gaul got on his feet again to say that he did not like to be contrary or arbitrary, but he believed that there were better men for the place in Macon and Christian counties, and Moultrie was ready to support any man selected. Before closing he made a detailed showing of what he had done in his county for the cause and he pictured how much greater the burden would be if he were to accept the nomination. He made a strong appeal to be reelected. By general consent the name of Mr. Gaul was withdrawn.

Henry Funk, of Pana, was nominated for state senator by acclamation.

For representative it was voted to place but one candidate in nomination, and Mervin G. Okey, of Millersville, Christian county, a farmer and a Grand Army man, who voted the Republican ticket in 1876, was placed in nomination, and he was declared the nominee by a unanimous vote.

Considerable time was taken up by Mr. Funk and Mr. Okey in making sample speeches for the campaign. They had sympathetic hearers.

As we go to press the question of putting a county ticket in the field is under consideration.

MINERS KILLED IN OHIO.

Collision Between Strikers and the State Militia.

[Special to the REPUBLICAN.]
CHICAGO, June 7.—Miners this morning attacked Guards five miles from Ironton, O. The Guards were knocked down with stones and overpowered.

It is reported that deputies moved on Bull Hill, Colorado, and that a skirmish is now progressing.

FRANK FARIES AT PEORIA.

Makes a Good Showing Yesterday at Lake View Park.

J. Frank Faries, one of Decatur's most promising bicycle racers, arrived home to-day from Peoria, where on yesterday at the annual field day exercises of the Y. M. C. A., at the Lake View Park, he made several good races in the bicycle contests. It was the largest and most successful athletic event ever held in Peoria. It took four hours to complete the list of events. Frank Faries entered in the half mile open, mile open, quarter of a mile open, two mile open and the five mile open bicycle races. He was unable to get a place in the first race but he got warmed up for the mile open and led the eleven racers until the home stretch when Burt Myers spurred past him and won the race in 24.25, with Faries a close second. A $6 center table was the prize which fell to Faries. The quarter of a mile race was won by Webb in 53.25 seconds, with Myers second and Faries third. Faries won a $3.75 five pound box of candy in this heat. In the two mile open Faries got in his work and finished first in 53.6 and received a $25 book as first prize. Faries got second place in the five mile open race to Bartlett first, whose time was 11:17.35. A. Y. M. C. A. membership ticket was the prize which fell to Faries in this race. It was in this race that Brees covered four miles in 11:11 and won a special prize.

Farries' record for the day stands one first, two seconds and one third, which, considering the fast company he was in and his limited experience in the track race, gives him a great record. There was a cold, raw wind blowing during the races. He is a modest but untiring racer and he will yet stand with the best racers in the country.

BICYCLE NOTES.

Farries' official time in the 17 1/4 mile road race at St. Louis last Saturday was 55 minutes flat, instead of 55 minutes and 3 seconds.

At the Trotting Association track last night Bob Vail covered a quarter in 29 1/5 with a flying start, and W. S. Ruby covered the same ground in 29 4/5. L. E. Rogers covered a half mile in one minute and six seconds with the wind to his back.

There will be a great program of races at Roodhouse on June 20th.

The meeting of the Decatur Cycling club has been postponed until next Thursday evening at the club rooms in Haworth Block.

MURDER AND ARSON

Attend the Attempt of Peoria District Coal Miners

TO COMPEL THE CLOSING OF A MINE.

The Militia Sent Out to Protect the Mine Accused of Running at the Approach of the Rioters, but Deny the Charge.

PEORIA, Ill., June 7.—One dead body, several men on the verge of the grave, a number of others seriously injured, $30,000 worth of property absolutely destroyed, homes made desolate, lifelong enemies formed, etc., tell the sad tale of an attempt made by the miners of the Peoria district to close the mine operated by Little Bros., in Tazwell county, a mile or more back of Wesley City.

It is the sequel of the meeting held at Bartonsville the other day, about which there was so much secrecy. No one could get the faintest inkling of what was done at the meeting. Now everybody knows. It was decided at that time that the Little Bros. mine must close. There could be no equivocation, no quibbling, no half-way measures. It must close and remain closed.

In consequence of the conclusion arrived at at that meeting, about 400 miners started out of Bartonsville about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They came from nearly all the mines in the neighborhood. Without anything having been previously said on the subject, except in the utmost secrecy, every man of them, apparently came armed; they were desperate, and were ready to use desperate means to accomplish desperate ends.

They went. All but one of them has returned. He will return some time to-day in all probability in a coffin. The result of the visit is best told in the list of dead and wounded, as follows:

Dead.

Edward Blower, of Bartonsville; shot in side of neck and killed instantly. He is a married man.

Injured.

James Little, shot twice in the body; thought to be fatally injured.

Peter Little, Sr., shot in the left eye and in right arm; not seriously injured.

William Dixon, colored, shot in the right arm and through left shoulder; may die.

Several miners were shot, but they were taken away, and no one could secure any information from them about anything.

After their work of destruction at the mine the mob raided one of the miners' houses. There was no one inside, so the door was kicked in, and several gallons of kerosene found in a tank were taken to the mine and thrown all over the shaft and power house. The match was applied, and as the building went up in smoke the strikers danced around. They allowed the half dozen miners at work in the mine to be brought out. The buildings were burned to the ground. After completing their work of destruction the mob dispersed, crossing the river in skiffs to prevent an armed force from intercepting them. The river bank was lined with the strikers last night, and numerous bonfires were burning.

The Little Bros. say they asked for protection which they did not get and that as soon as the sheriff's posse met the strikers they fled, seeking shelter in the underbrush of the surrounding hills. They intend to begin suit against the county for the amount of their loss.

Sheriff Frederick denies that his posse fled. He said they were unarmed and could do nothing to prevent the advance of the mob. An inquest was begun at Pekin and continued until today, after viewing the remains of the killed. It is the intention to hold a number of the strikers for murder.

It is charged that John L. Gehz, formerly a member of the legislature, was the leader of the mob, although the people who know his expressed opposition to any sort of violence will not believe the allegation.

RIOTOUS FOREIGNERS.

Raiding Plants and Destroying Property

—The Owners Helpless.

McKeesport, Pa., June 6.—An angry mob of 2,000 foreigners, National tube works strikers, returned to McKeesport just after noon, having in their morning raid destroyed two of the largest tipples on the river. The raiders first halted at David Moor's tipple at Point View. The structure was soon razed to the ground. The rioters then tore down the platform at the railroad siding, but was stopped on the hill by Corey, superintendent of the company, who had a revolver. A half dozen men rushed upon him and quickly disarmed him. He denied that any men were at work, but the infuriated foreigners would not listen to him, and a committee was appointed to inspect the mine. They returned shortly afterwards with twenty-five men.

McIntyre then arrived and ordered the men off the place. The mob seeing a revolver in his hand shouted: "Teach him a lesson." This was followed by an attack upon the tipple, the men using picks and axes, and in less than fifteen minutes the structure was in ruins. Not content with this, the torch was applied, and the tipple, machinery and other equipments were soon ablaze. The mob then continued the march over the hill.

McIntyre and Corey were helpless, and had to stand by and see the property destroyed. The property destroyed was valued at over $10,000.

During the rioting several men were trampled upon, and Pittsburgh newspaper man was slightly injured.

Upon returning to the city the mob took possession of the streets in the vicinity of the tube works, shouting, carrying and creating the greatest excitement. Finally the marchers dispersed.

Trouble and bloodshed is feared before the day is out, as there are no deputies here to contend with the rioters, most of whom have been employed as day laborers at the tube works. They went on this morning's rioting expedition owing to the success they achieved yesterday.

Later reports state that thirty men were injured in yesterday's riots; that one, named Slaughterback, will die.

The situation is much the same as prevailed at Homestead before the big battle. The men are in complete possession of the town. Mayor Andre has issued another and stronger proclamation calling upon all citizens to preserve the peace at any hazard, and he particularly warns all persons from unlawfully assembling in the vicinity of the tube works.

DEFIED THE SOLDIERS,

But Were Outwitted by a Train Crew on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling.

CAMBRIDGE, O., June 7.—Sheriff Mason, of Guernsey county, left here again yesterday morning for Scott's mine, at Mineral siding, to help quell the mob. They had all dispersed when he got there but about 300, who were left to guard the track. They still had the several Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling cars loaded with coal sidetracked, and were keeping a vigilant watch over them.

When Sheriff Mason arrived he went out to the middle of the track and read the law to them from the code. They paid close attention to him until he had finished and then began jeering and hooting at him, and cries of "Bring on your soldiers," "Bring on your bluecoats; we will show 'em what starving men can do," were heard on all sides.

In order to defy the law and sheriff the more they mounted the coal cars and dumped about half out of each of the end cars so that they could not be moved for the blockade. They had quieted down somewhat by the time

No. 103, the west-bound express, was due at 11:40, but when they saw coming around the curve on No. 103's time a freight loaded with coal at a speed of forty miles an hour, their anger was aroused, and as the train flew past they stoned it until every glass in the cab of the engine was broken and the cars looked as if painted black. The trainmen narrowly escaped with their lives by hiding in the bottom of the engine cab and in the caboose. This trick of the railroad aroused the men to the highest state of excitement again, and they called an indignation meeting for this afternoon.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT

To Prevent Interference with the Operation of Railroad Trains.

COLUMBUS, O., June 7.—Gov. McKinley ordered out 1,200 state troops yesterday to prevent the interference with the operation of railroad trains in eastern Ohio by striking coal miners, which has been going on for several days.

The troops called out comprise the eighth, fourteenth and seven companies of the seventeenth regiment of infantry and battery H of the first artillery regiment.

The order was given very quietly and the movement of the local troops put in action was carefully made under the cover of darkness.

The fourteenth regiment and the battery, which belong here, left for the east at midnight, going by the Baltimore & Ohio on special train.

Want the County Placed Under Martial Law.

SHELBURN, Ind., June 6.—Chief Deputy Sheriff Briggs has gone to Sullivan to request the county judge to make application to have the county placed under martial law, as Gen. McKee had declared it impossible to do anything so long as he is handicapped by Sheriff Mills, who is evidently operating with the miners.

The strikers are making no demonstration whatever, but maintain an ominous silence. At 11 a. m. a company was sent from here to Carlisle, a few miles below Sullivan, to bring a coal train through, and the result is awaited with great interest.

The Strikers Secure Cannon—Warned Out of Town on Pain of Death.

McKeesport, Pa., June 7.—The strikers have secured three canon, which they have planted in the bushes on the hill opposite McKeesport. They are trained directly on the tuba works.

The men in charge say they are intended for business. Dr. Houff, of Homestead, appeared among the strikers here this afternoon and introduced himself as a representative of the Associated press. He was recognized by the strikers as having been a witness against the Homestead workmen, and he was given one hour to get out of town. He was told he would be killed if he did not heed the warning.

Coal Tipple Wrecked and Burned and Coal Craft Cut Adrift.

McKeesport, Pa., June 7.—At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon 1,500 of the tuba works strikers went to Reynoldson, on the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Yohogahny railroad, cut loose and set adrift five coal barges, one of which was loaded. The coal tipple was then destroyed and the wrecks fired.

The tipple was owned by Koetz & Co. The barges were the property of Jenkins & Robbins. The mob then divided, following the banks of the river, cutting loose all coal craft tied along the shores.

To Attack Bull Hill This Morning.

CRIPPLE CREEK, VIA TELEPHONE, June 6, 2 p. m.—The deputies have taken up a fortified position at the Summit mill, just below Gillette, and have placed their cannon in position. The strikers have all retreated to Bull Hill, and are fortified, and have also been largely reinforced. A demand on them to surrender was refused, although they stated they would lay down their arms to the militia. The deputies will remain where they are all night and stay in the morning.

The following game was played yesterday:

McKeesport, Pa., June 6.—The crowd of 3,000 strikers that started for the Duquesne tuba works to force the men at work there were successful. The crowd reached Duquesne, two miles below here, at 3:30 p. m. The strikers entered the works and asked those at work to stop. There were 350 men at work. The men obeyed the order to quit at once. No trouble occurred.

Baseball.

The following game was played yesterday:

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—In the senate after some joint sessions, the tariff bill was taken up at 10:30 a. m., the question being on the tobacco schedule (S. 39). Mr. Jones inveighed against the repeal, and Mr. Ingley closed the debate. A national bank currency as the worst that could be conceived, and ought not to be allowed to stand. Mr. Vest's suggestion was concurred in, and Jones' amendment, as originally proposed, was agreed to.

The next paragraph (186) read as it came from the house and was reported from the finance committee now modified the amendment by making the rates $1 on the unstemmed wrapper tobacco and $1.25 on the stemmed.

Mr. Price opposed the modification, and Mr. Vest on behalf of the finance committee suggested that the modification be withdrawn and that the amendment remain as originally proposed.

OUR BUYER

Has just Returned from the East.

In addition to the large stock which we had on hand and contracted for delivery he made purchases for spot cash of a large line of shoes. The season has been peculiarly favorable for the cash buyer in consequence of the large amount of goods returned to the factories and the large amount of orders countermanded at the last minute. This loaded up the factories with goods and made them short of cash. This was our opportunity. Among our purchases is a large line of Ladies' Oxfords, some of them now in and more of them coming. We do not want to quote any prices but say simply that if you will call at our store we will astonish you with the goods and the prices which we can show you.

It is worthy of note that we have decided to go into the wholesale shoe business, that we consequently get every possible discount for wholesalers and of course own our own goods cheaper than retailers can. We want to have the people understand once and for all that we have absolutely the lowest prices on goods; that we sell them lower than anybody, and that the best way to learn this truth is by getting our prices and seeing our goods. We are determined that no customer of ours shall lose a penny in any possible bargain that he might get anywhere and we are determined that we shall have a larger share of the retail shoe business than ever before if prices can bring such a trade. Come and see us.

GOES UP FOR SIX YEARS.

[SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN.]

CHICAGO, June 7.—Heughley, the president of the defunct Indianapolis National Bank, was to-day sentenced to six years in the penitentiary for his part in the wrecking of the bank.

THE BRIDGE IS ALL RIGHT.

Sensational Report That the Structure Had Been Blown Up.

Repeated inquiries by telephone came to the REPUBLICAN office this forenoon asking if there was any truth in the report that the St. Louis bridge southwest of the city had been blown up by the coal miners, the conclusion being that the work had been done to prevent the hauling of coal to Decatur.

Hasty investigation brought out the fact that the Wabash construction train was then at the bridge doing some work with the derrick and the crew. A REPUBLICAN reporter visited the bridge at once and soon learned that no depredation had been committed. Mr. Strain, the superintendent of the train and then, expressed surprise that a sensational story had been circulated in the city, and he could not account for it except on the theory that some farmer driving past had come to the city and started the story designedly or through ignorance.

The bridge is in good shape. The crew was simply engaged in placing some big stones in position at the north end of the bridge, work that should have been done when the structure was rebuilt some years ago.

"There is nothing wrong with the bridge," said Mr. Strain. "It is all right. We are just taking advantage of the present slack times to fix up a little here and there at different points on the line, and we will be through with this job to day."

SWITCHBACK RAILWAY.

It Is to Be a Go at Our Riverside Park in the Near Future.

Great Fun and Pleasure for the Big Folks and the Children—Gravity Action.

All Decatur will soon have the privilege and pleasure of riding on the famous Switchback Railway, which is to be built by a stock company, capital $4000, and put in successful operation at Riverside Park. It is not a toboggan slide, a merry-go-round, nor a roller coaster, but an entirely new thing, the cars seating ten people each, starting from the station and dashing down grades over hills and mountains and through valleys, to return automatically in safety to the starting point, and all the time the band will play merrily to add to the general enthusiasm.

The Switchback Railway device was patented by a Mr. Thompson, and the builders and engineers are the Wilbur Brothers. C. S. Wilbur is now in the city, and with Will L. Ferguson and W. H. Starr is giving leading citizens of the community an opportunity to take stock in the company whose formation will be completed by this evening. As stated the capital will be $40,000, and the shares are placed at $100 each. The Wilburs will take $2,000 of the stock, and it is expected that only 50 per cent. of the stock will be required to put the railway in successful operation.

That the Switchback will be a success from the start goes without saying. They are in operation at Kansas City, DesMoines, Iowa, Moline and at Champaign, and every pleasant day the cars are crowded with parties who enter into the full enjoyment of the exhilarating outdoor sport. It takes a little courage at first to make the trip over the tracks but after "ice is broken," the fever is on, and the Switchback becomes the popular pastime. It is perfectly safe for young and old. The charges will be only five cents a ride, and on certain days the children go at half price.

The railway will be built in the ravine west of the Natatorium, and will extend from a point near the summer theatre pavilion to the bluff close to the river.

The work of construction will begin in a few days.

Grand Carnival To-Night.

EUCHERED OUT or $5,000.

Otis Haskins, on of the richest men in Pittsfield, was bunkered out of $5,000.

Wednesday by two strangers who wanted to buy a farm. One of the men went to his house to see him in regard to some land and Haskins took him out in the country to see a farm. On the way they met the third party. They exhibited a box containing considerable money, and in some way they got Haskins to put $5,000, which he had borrowed, into the box with their money and then locked and gave it to him to keep until to day, when they were to return. When he reached home he became suspicious and opened the box and found a piece of stone wrapped in paper. The robbers were caught in Versailles, Brown county, and taken to Pittsfield.

Call for a Conference Issued.

In accordance with a telegram of instructions received a Springfield yesterday from State President Crawford, of the United Mine Workers, Secretary Guymon issued a call addressed to the coal operators of inspection districts 3, 4 and 5 of Illinois, reading as follows:
